JVC Jazz Festival Newport

August 8-10, 2008

Newport, RI

Since 1954, Newport has been synonymous with the world's greatest gathering of jazz musicians and fans – especially those who love their music against the backdrop of Newport's pristine harbor and treasure the unprogrammed moments when musical genius jams on stage. Chris Botti and Ledisi kick off the weekend on Friday night at the Newport Casino. Some of the world's biggest names in jazz and popular music then fill three stages at historic Fort Adams State Park on Saturday and Sunday: Aretha Franklin, Sonny Rollins, Herbie Hancock, Anthony Hamilton, Guillermo Klein Y Los Gauchos, Soulive with Fred Wesley, Lionel Loueke Trio, Chris Potter's Underground, George Wein and the Newport All-Stars featuring Anat Cohen and Howard Alden, Marco Benevento Trio, Esperanza Spalding, Warren Vache Quintet and even more!

Beat the crowds, find the shade and finest eats, savor the best of music as a VIP. Experience the magic of the JVC Jazz Festival Newport in exclusive style & comfort.
